

RISING STAR

ONE OF SCOTLAND'S MOST COLLECTABLE ARTISTS AT FAIRFAX GALLERY

Meand Max Acrylic on Canvas 40 x 28 cm

To start the new season the Tunbridge Wells Fairfax Gallery introduce one of Scotland's rising stars, Catriona Millar.

Catriona Millar is recognised as one of Scotland's foremost figurative painters. The Herald Newspaper ranked Catriona in the top five most collectable Scottish artists and her work is collected throughout Europe, the Far East and America. Catriona has won the respect and acclaim of collectors, critics and leading galleries alike since her 2005 sell out degree show and was also listed in Who's Who in Scotland 2012.

Fuelled by remarkable colour and pattern, their beautiful texture offsetting their intimacy, Catriona's unique paintings possess an emotional resonance and deep truth that cuts through the boundaries which often surround contemporary art. Her stunning works continue to enjoy a special place amongst the contemporary art buying public including support from such influential admirers as Charles Saatchi.

Catriona Millar's work will be exhibited alongside original paintings and sculpture by established, award-winning and emerging artists at the Fairfax Gallery on the Pantiles,

Catriona Millar 'Lorraine' Oil on Canvas 18 x 13 cm £500

Catriona Millar 'Ob-La-Di' Oil on Canvas 90x42 cm £2800

Tunbridge Wells from September 22nd to 22nd October.

New paintings and sculpture by some of the most popular gallery artists will also be featured in the exhibition.
